Legislation Implications

Senate Bill 753 (Padilla)

- Changing the CELDT annual assessment (AA) window from fall to spring when 55% of the school year is completed
- Allowing “banking” the CELDT scores of early advanced or advanced within grade span
- Implementation in 2013–14

Tom Torlakson
State Superintendent of Public Instruction

Legislation Implications (cont.)

Proposed changes to AYP

- No achievement targets for all students including EL subgroup
- Continuous improvement in student performance
- Intensive interventions for lowest-performing schools (5 percent) and achievement-gap schools
