

- Improve instructional practice and increase technology proficiencies for administrators, teachers and students
- Improve student achievement through the powerful integration of technology

Program Benefits

The CTAP Region Program offers the following opportunities for building an effective instructional professional development program in your district:

- Leadership skills for educators based on proven research-based models and strategies
- Free and discounted tools, resources, and trainings
- Ongoing coaching and support
- Face-to-face and web-based training and support events
- Professional Learning Community of Educational Tech Leaders

Choose from one of the following 2008 Orientation Meetings

- Monterey COE: January 25, February 6
- Santa Clara COE: January 15, January 25, February 4
- Santa Cruz COE: January 16, January 30

Leadership In Instruction

Teaching, Learning &
Technology
February 25-27, 2008

Building District
Instructional Technology Leaders

Come to a Leadership
Orientation Meeting to Hear More!

Registration for both
Orientation and LFI
Program
<http://ctap5.k12oms.org>