

Best Practices Forum

May 1, 2008

Goals:

- Become aware of practices and strategies that are likely to impact student learning
- Increase understanding of how to implement best practices systematically

Keynote Presenter:

Beatrice "Bea" McGarvey has a reputation for successfully consulting with educators throughout the United States and Canada in the areas of standards implementation, teaching and learning, leadership, and organizational development. Her knowledge and experience is vast, a result of the thirty-year career as a classroom teacher, as a middle school counselor and administrator, and as a district and state leader.

Bea's affiliation with Dr. Marzano and Dr. Debra Pickering spans more than 10 years and includes implementing their research and practices in the classroom and at the school and district levels. As a consultant for Marzano & Associates, she leads school communities to become more student centered, focusing vital resources on strategies and processes with the potential to make a difference in student learning.
