

CALIFORNIA SCIENCE EDUCATION CONFERENCE ADMINISTRATOR DAY

SAVE THE DATE!

San Jose Convention Center | Saturday, Nov. 1, 2008

FIRST TIME IN CALIFORNIA! This one day special conference strand will equip administrators with the knowledge and skills on how to implement effective K-12 science programs. Nationally recognized speakers and concurrent workshop sessions will inspire and provide practical ideas on how to ensure science access for all students

Featured Speakers include:

KENNETH WESSON

Education Consultant, Neuroscience; "Learning and the Brain: Connections Between Science, Language, and Math"

SALLY GOETZ SHULER

Executive Director of the National Science Resources Center

Target Audience:

District Office Administrators &
Principals

Concurrent Workshops:

- Literacy in the Service of Science
- Promising Practices for Closing the Achievement Gap in Science and Literacy for English Language Learners
- What Does a Good Model of Teacher Training Look Like?
- Panel Discussion: Using Science to Close the Achievement Gap
- The Win-Win of Teaching Science and Literacy

