

RtI²

Response to Instruction and Intervention: Providing Equity and Access for All Students

From Research to Legislation to Implementation

Based on materials from the IRIS Center and Sonoma County Office of Education

During this introductory workshop participants will become familiar with the definition and scope of Response to Instruction and Intervention (RtI²) and learn implications on district, school, and classroom systems. Background knowledge on IDEA and the development of RtI² will be given as well as the relationship of RtI² to No Child Left Behind. Participants will be given strategies to embark on the initial steps needed to implement RtI² in their district/school.
