Effective Leadership Skills - November 9, 2009 4:30 - 7:00 p.m. (Milpitas Room)

More and more women are ascending to higher levels of leadership than ever before. As these female professionals advance in their careers, change jobs, and continually develop new ideas and opportunities for themselves and their peers, they are searching for a place that can provide a continuum of resources to help them along their pathways to power. Please join us for an evening that looks at building Effective Leadership Skills. We will explore the attributes that make a great leader – trust, character, credibility, etc.

Cracking the Glass Ceiling

February 4, 2010 4:30 - 7:00 p.m. (Milpitas Room)

Please join the Women Leadership Network for a panel discussion sharing the stories of successful women leaders of the Silicon Valley who cracked the glass ceiling. The panel will offer personal accounts of how they found their leadership opportunities and how they negotiated the needs of different stakeholders while maintaining their vision. Each will share their own attitudes, skills, and/or behaviors that contributed to their success, as well as examples of mistakes they would not make again.

Tech Academy 101 – By Women for Women

March 4, 2010 4:30 - 7:00 p.m. (Oak Grove Room)

Ever get lost with technology but didn't know where to go for help? Are you lost in conversations about Skype, Facebook, Twitter, Doodle, and podcasting? This workshop will help you manage technology without it managing you, understand what new sites are out there so you can use them or at least understand what people are talking about, and receive great information about personal safety and privacy issues.

The workshop will be led by SCCOE Chief Technology Officer and CETPA President Elect Dr. Kelly Calhoun, CTAP Regional Lead Paula Hundley, and TICAL and ACSA Tech Group member Dr. Lisa Gonzales.
